

JESUS CHRIST, THE SON OF GOD

“He is the chief cornerstone of the Church that bears His name, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. There is no other name given among men whereby we can be saved (see Acts 4:12). He is the Author of our salvation, the Giver of eternal life (see Hebrews 5:9). There is none to equal Him. There never has been. There never will be. Thanks be to God for the gift of His Beloved Son, who gave His life that we might live and who is the chief, immovable cornerstone of our faith and His Church ... He is the central focus of our worship ... None so great has ever walked the earth. None other has made a comparable sacrifice or granted a comparable blessing. He is the Savior and the Redeemer of the world. I believe in Him. I declare His divinity without equivocation or compromise. I love Him. I speak the name of Jesus Christ in reverence and wonder. He is our King, our Lord, our Master, the living Christ, who stands on the right hand of His Father. He lives! He lives, resplendent and wonderful, the living Son of the living God.” (Gordon B. Hinckley)

“The fundamental principles of our religion are the testimony of the Apostles and Prophets, concerning Jesus Christ, that He died, was buried, and rose again the third day, and ascended into heaven; and all other things which pertain to our religion are only appendages to it.” (Joseph Smith)

“We place [Jesus Christ] on a pedestal as no other group I know of. To us he is not only the Son of God, he is also a God and we are subject to him ... No matter how much we say of him, it is still too little.” (Spencer W. Kimball)

“I have found many in the world who have not known that we believe in the divine mission of our Lord, and I have been led to say upon more than one occasion that there are no people in the world who so well understand the divine mission of Jesus Christ, who so thoroughly believe him to have been the Son of God, who are so sanguine [confident] that at the present time he is enthroned in glory at the right hand of his Father, as the Latter-day Saints.” (George Albert Smith)

“He is our Lord, our Redeemer, the Messiah, the King of Zion, the Rock of Heaven. He ransomed us with His blood.” (Boyd K. Packer)

“After five decades of life, I am more aware than ever before of the suffering of Jesus Christ as He took upon Himself the sins of the world and willingly died that we might live. I constantly contemplate His Courage and submission in the face of opposition and His unwavering love in spite of disappointments. He loves me, even though I am far from perfect. Through the various challenges of my life, I have never felt alone. I am grateful for the knowledge of a personal Savior. In this troubled world, Christ is real, alive, and a bastion of strength to all who come unto Him. God is real. He sent His Son to redeem us and to save the world from sin. For this I am eternally grateful.” (Christine Roberts)

“And now, after the many testimonies which have been given of him, this is the testimony, last of all, which we give of him: That he lives!” (D&C 76:22).
